- Review of the GMO decision process

Greenpeace very excited of the announcement of J.C Juncker to review GMO decision making. Completely agree : not democratic. Rumors about renationalizing/opt out for GM food and feed but this is not meeting the commitment taken which is to change decision making and not to change matters at the end of the pipe, after the decision of authorization. In addition only addresses food and feed not cultivation. Not addressing flaws in the GMO risk assessment. What grounds could be used for GM food and feed.

Cabinet explained collegial decision not taken yet. Commission looks at all options. Food and feed mentioned in the political guidelines. Grounds have been discussed in cultivation proposal.
