

1st informal trilogue on Telecoms Single Market Regulation
(Connected Continent)
COM (2013) 627 - 2013/0309 (COD)
23.03.2015, Brussels

For the European Parliament: Jerzy BUZEK (Chair of ITRE committee), Pilar DEL CASTILLO (Rapporteur ITRE, EPP), Patricia TOIA (S&D Shadow), Vicky FORD (ECR Shadow and IMCO rapporteur for opinion), Michel REIMON (Greens Shadow), Petra KAMMEREVERT (CULT rapporteur for opinion)

For the Council: Juris Štālmeistars, Latvian Deputy Permanent Representative

For the Commission: Roberto Viola (DDG CNECT), Anthony Whelan (Director CNECT), [REDACTED] (CNECT), [REDACTED] (CNECT), [REDACTED] (CNECT), [REDACTED] (CNECT), [REDACTED] (CNECT), [REDACTED] (CNECT), Markus Schulte (CAB Oettinger), [REDACTED] (LS), [REDACTED] (SG)

Summary: Positive first discussion but short of going into the details. The Parliament sticks to its original position adopted in April 2014 which includes provisions on net neutrality (NN), roaming, spectrum and end-users rights, as does the Commission. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Council rejects the possibility to negotiate spectrum provisions. Discussion on NN was limited. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Next trilogue scheduled for 21 April, and to be preceded by a number of technical meetings.

[REDACTED]

- [REDACTED] The Chair and Rapporteurs suggested for the technical level to work on aligning the NN provisions of the Parliament and Council. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

As regards spectrum the Parliament sees way forward in working on a lighter text, for instance limited to principles (Council firm on rejecting spectrum as an issue for negotiations).

- Next trilogue scheduled for 21 April, and to be preceded by a number of technical meetings.
