Background:

[REDACTED] had invited Europol for a working meeting in relation to Europol's commitment as intelligence platform within the field Animal Rights Extremism (ARE)

Conclusions of the meeting:

[REDACTED]

Europol was given presentations by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] order to raise awareness on the [REDACTED] approach to tackle Animal Rights Extremism.

Europol presented the possibilities and limitations in relation to the [REDACTED] initiative. We covered operational and strategic options as well as clarified the legislation that regulates the work of Europol.

A fruitful discussion on the way forward took place and in our view the foundation for the future cooperation in this field is now in place.

[REDACTED]

It was decided that [REDACTED] and Europol will do interlinked presentations on [REDACTED] and the Europol intelligence platform on ARE at the International Animal Rights Conference in [REDACTED] of May 2007. [REDACTED] also requested support in relation to the executive phase of [REDACTED]
