Dear Madam,

We thank you very much for your answer, a meeting in French will indeed be more convenient for INTERBEV representatives.

We take the opportunity of this email to send you the different analysis elaborated by INTERBEV as regard the ongoing TTIP negotiations:

They relate, more precisely, to:

- the potential impacts of a free trade agreement with the US in terms of direct and indirect job losses in France ("Volet Emploi"), as well as on the European livestock model as such ("Volet Societal").
- the most sensitive tariff lines of bovine meats which the sector considers as essential to protect during these negotiations ("Volet Tarifaire").

These documents are in French. We will send you the English versions by Thursday. Do not hesitate to contact us for any further information you may need.

Dear [REDACTED] l,

Following a meeting we had yesterday in Paris with INTERBEV representatives, we are pleased to inform you that M. Marc Pagès, Director-General of INTERBEV, will also participate to the meeting with Mrs Asenius on January 26th (5.30 pm).

Will therefore be present: M. Langlois (President), M. Pagès (DG), [REDACTED] (INTERBEV [REDACTED]), [REDACTED] (Alinea).

You will find attached the requested information to ensure access to the Commission's premises.

Finally, I would like to check a practical issue as regard our appointment: M. Pagès and Mr Langlois do not speak English. I therefore wonder whether Mrs Asenius does speak French or not?

If not, would you be assisted by somebody, on your side, to provide translation from English to French?

[REDACTED] and myself would be able to provide translation from INTERBEV representatives' interventions (in French) towards English to the attention of Mrs Asenius.

I am looking forward to reading you.

Do not hesitate to contact us for any further information you may need.

Kind regards.

For INTERBEV

Dear [REDACTED],

Further to your email exchange with [REDACTED] I have to inform you that unfortunately due to a very busy agenda it will not be possible for the Commissioner to meet Mr Langlois, however, our Head of Cabinet, Mrs Åsenius would be available to meet him on Tuesday 26 January at 17h30. Would that work for him?

We are located in the Berlaymont building, 200 rue de la Loi in 1049 Brussels – close to Place Schuman.

May I ask you to have the attached visitors form completed and returned to me by Friday 22 January please?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Importance: High

Madam,

On behalf of the French Livestock and Meats Interbranch Association, INTERBEV, we have solicited on December 16th, a meeting with Commissioner Malmström (see email below)

Mr. Langlois, President of INTERBEV, who will be in Brussels on January 26th and 27th, would indeed be pleased to have the opportunity to discuss with Mrs Malmström of the current TTIP negotiations and present the sector's position.

Due to a heavy agenda in these two days, Mr Langlois would now be available for a meeting:

- On January 26th, at 5 pm or later,
- On January 27th, anytime before 11 am.

We would be grateful to hear from you so as to know whether Mrs Malmström would be available at these dates / times.

Do not hesitate to contact us for any additional information you may need.

We are looking forward to reading you.

Yours sincerely.

To the attention of Mrs Cecilia Malmström, Commissioner - European Commission - TRADE

Dear Commissioner,

On behalf of INTERBEV, we are pleased to contact you as regard the current negotiations towards a Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP).

INTERBEV is the French Interbranch organisation for Livestock and Meats, recognised by the state since 1980. It is composed of 20 federations and trade unions, representing the whole livestock and meats sector. Its role is to defend and promote the interests of French livestock farmhouses, industrial and commercial activities of the beef, cattle, sheep and equine sectors.

Since 2014, INTERBEV has been working intensively on different analysis of potential impacts on the livestock sector of a free trade agreement with the US. This work focus on the European livestock model which is likely to be endangered by an FTA, provide an estimate of direct and indirect job losses in France and identify the most sensitive tariff lines to be protected during the final negotiations.

In this context, Mr Langlois, President of the association, would be pleased to present you the main conclusions of these analysis and initiate an exchange of views on the EU position as regard the protection of the European livestock sector. As Mr Langlois will be in Brussels on Tuesday 26 January, he would be available for a meeting in the afternoon, after 3.15 pm. Obviously, if such schedule would not be convenient for you, we would welcome any alternative.

We thank you very much for your consideration.

We are looking forward to reading you.

Yours sincerely,
