Personal invitation to the conference:
"From Divestment to Green Investment: Perspectives from Finance, Science, and Society"

Thursday, 21 July 2016 in Berlin

Dear Ms [REDACTED],

We are very pleased to invite you to the international conference "From Divestment to Green Investment: Perspectives from Finance, Science, and Society" to be held on Thursday, 21 July 2016 in Berlin.

Together with our partners Climate-KIC and the Humboldt University, we are organising this high-level event to discuss the challenges and opportunities presented by the ongoing transformation process "from divestment to green investment", and to highlight the need for a longer-term orientation of finance.

Discussions will focus on recent developments such as the decisions from notable financial actors to divest from fossil-fuel assets and reorient their investment portfolios, as well as the establishment and ongoing work of the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosure set by the FSB and the G20 in 2015.

Experts from the areas of policy making, finance, research, and civil society have been invited to attend this high-level conference, to generate constructive and stimulating exchanges and discussions. The Senate Hall at the Humboldt University in the heart of Berlin offers a fitting location for this very important sharing of views.

Please see attached a provisional programme for the event. As you will see, the main conference will be followed by a public event which you are equally welcome to attend. The public event will take place in German whereas the language of the main conference and dinner will be English.

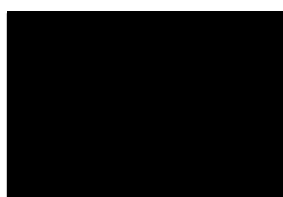

You are also kindly invited to attend the conference dinner on Wednesday, 20 July 2016, hosted by Climate-KIC. The dinner will take place at the EUREF energy campus Berlin-Schöneberg.

We would be delighted if you are able to accept the invitation to attend the conference and we hope to be able to welcome you to Berlin in July.
