Dear Mr Harmsen,

Subject: Your application for access to documents – Ref GestDem No 2016/7249

We refer to your email dated 22/12/2016 in which you make a request for access to documents, registered on 23/12/2016 under the above mentioned reference number.

1. Scope of your request

In your request, you asked access on the basis of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001\(^1\) to "on the topic of endocrine disruptors (also spelled: disrupters), all minutes of meetings or any other reports of such meetings between officials/representatives of the European Commission (all DGs, including the SG) and scientists. (between March 15th 2016 and December 22th 2016).

2. Identification of the concerned documents

We have identified 4 documents as falling (partially or entirely) under the scope of your request (see table attached to this reply).

3. Assessment of the documents

Having examined the documents, we have come to the conclusion that partial access can be granted to the documents identified.

Please find attached those documents as well as table 1 containing the assessment carried out on their content on the basis of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001.

You may reuse Commission documents free of charge for non-commercial and commercial purposes provided that the source is acknowledged, that you do not distort the original meaning or message of the documents. Documents originating from third parties cannot be re-used without the agreement of the originators.

4. Protection of personal data

The documents identified contain personal data, such as the names of Technical University of Munich, The Endocrine Society, Bayer staff or Commission's non-managerial staff. Pursuant to Article 4(1)(b) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, access to a document has to be refused if its disclosure would undermine the protection of privacy and the integrity of the individual, in particular in accordance with Community legislation regarding the protection of personal data. The applicable legislation in this field is Regulation (EC) No 45/2001.

When access is requested to documents containing personal data, Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 becomes fully applicable. According to Article 8(b) of this Regulation, personal data shall only be transferred to recipients if they establish the necessity of having the data transferred to them and if there is no reason to assume that the legitimate rights of the persons concerned might be prejudiced. We consider that, with the information available, the necessity of disclosing the aforementioned personal data to you has not been established and that it cannot be assumed that such disclosure would not prejudice the legitimate rights of the persons concerned. Therefore, we are disclosing these documents expunged for personal data.

5. Means of redress

May you wish this position to be reconsidered, you should present in writing, within fifteen working days from receipt of this letter, a confirmatory application to the Commission's Secretary-General at the address below. The Secretary-General will inform you of the result of such review within 15 working days from the date of registration of your request. You will either be given access to the documents or your request will be rejected, in which case you will be informed of what further action is open to you.
