Dear Mr Pavlou,

Following the email exchange with my service on 25 April, I have the pleasure to inform you that EEAS on 8 May received agreement from the third party concerned (the Cabinet of Defence and Civil Service of the Belgian Military forces) to make the requested documents available to you, after redaction of names of soldiers, pursuant to Article 4(1)(b) of the Regulation.

Therefore, attached to this letter, you will find the copies of all contracts and agreements (including amendments) currently in force between EEAS and the Belgian Military forces.

I kindly remind you that the documents may not be copied or reproduced for commercial purposes without prior consultation with the EEAS.

Yours sincerely

Gabriele Visentin
