Dear Mr Cancela,

Subject: Your application for access to documents – Ref GestDem No 2017/947

We refer to your e-mail dated 15/02/2017 in which you make a request for access to documents, registered on 16/02/2017 under the above mentioned reference number, and to our reply sent by email on 9/03/2017, our reference Ares(2017)1248292.

A) With regard to the first part of your request ‘the report of the intervention made by the European Commissioner for the Digital Single Market, Andrus Ansip, in the ECIPE Seminar “Unleashing the internal data flow in the EU” in the Hotel Silken Berlaymont on 30 November, 2016 at 3.00 PM’, we informed you already in our reply of 9/03/2017 (Ares(2017)1248292) that no such report exists, as it was a speech delivered to a public forum, and the speech itself was made available to you.

In this regard I would like to further specify that, as laid down in Article 2(3) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001 (‘Regulation 1049/2001’), the right of access as defined in that regulation applies only to documents that exist and are in the possession of the institution.

Given that no such documents have been identified, the Commission is not in a position to handle your request in this respect. In accordance with Article 7(2) of Regulation 1049/2001, you are entitled to make a confirmatory application requesting the Commission to review this position (please refer to point C at the end of this letter as regards the relevant details).

B) With regard to the second part of your request, i.e. ‘minutes and other reports of the meetings of the European Commissioner for the Digital Single Market, Andrus Ansip, and other officials and representatives of his DG about the issue of data flows with private providers of digital services (including tech companies and tech industry groups, but also lobby consultancies, law firms and others working for tech industry clients or otherwise representing the tech industry) in the EU between January 1st 2012 and today’, we have identified, in addition to the documents already provided to you in our reply dated 9/03/2017, Ares(2017)1248292, the following further documents, as annexed to this letter:

9. Report of Meeting: Information Technology Industry Council (ITIC) and Digital Europe and DG CONNECT.E2 on 7 April 2016 - Ares(2016)2366822

Most of the above documents contain personal data. In accordance with Article 4(1)(b) of Regulation 1049/2001, access to a document has to be refused, if its disclosure would undermine the protection of privacy and the integrity of the individual, in particular in accordance with Community legislation regarding the protection of personal data. The applicable legislation in this field is Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data (Regulation 45/2001). When access is requested to documents containing personal data, Regulation 45/2001 becomes fully applicable.

According to Article 8(b) of Regulation 45/2001, personal data shall only be transferred to recipients if they establish the necessity of having the data transferred to them and if there is no reason to assume that the legitimate rights of the persons concerned might be prejudiced.

We consider that, with the information available, the necessity of disclosing the aforementioned personal data to you has not been established and/or that it cannot be assumed that such disclosure would not prejudice the legitimate rights of the persons concerned. Therefore, we are disclosing the documents requested, but with the personal data expunged.

In case you would disagree with the assessment that the expunged data are personal data which can only be disclosed if such disclosure is legitimate under the rules of personal data protection, you are entitled, in accordance with Article 7(2) of Regulation 1049/2001, to make a confirmatory application requesting the Commission to review this position. For the details in this regard, please refer to point C below.
