Dear

Following up from our conversation of yesterday, please be informed that the Italian Council of Ministers is due to vote on, and likely adopt, probably in the coming days, an amended version of decree 212 of 2001 regarding coexistence, which is the basis for the "de facto" ban in Italy.

Please find the draft amended decree attached. It has been formally sent to stakeholders in Italy, including our member Italian member association. As far as we understand, the initial decree from 2001 was never formally notified by the Italian government to the European Commission, and we are not sure if there is any intention to notify this amended version.

Content wise, the attached proposed amendment to the decree 212 of 2001 would seem to prolong the de facto national authorization system which was declared illegal by the European Court of Justice only recently.

Best regards
