Main issues discussed

Hyundai Motor Group requested the meeting in order to present its operations in Europe and discuss with us global trade dynamics including the section 232 investigation of the US on cars.

[Art.4.2]

The Hyundai representatives asked about our views on the USA-Mexico negotiations and if we are aware of any side-letter on section 232 shared between the two governments in this negotiation. We replied that we follow the discussions with interest, particularly as the revised rules of origin agreement may have an impact for European companies. Hyundai mentioned that they only produce small cars in Mexico.

[Out of Scope]

Korean representatives asked about [Art.4.2] the state of affairs in the EU-US trade discussions. Finally the [Art.4.2] for the EU-US discussions we explained that we are currently discussing within the parameters agreed between Presidents Juncker and Trump this summer.
