Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your message.

It will be a pleasure to welcome [REDACTED] to the Berlaymont on 28 November. [REDACTED] will follow up on Monday and find a mutually convenient slot (ideally in the afternoon as in the morning the European Commission will meet to discuss on the proposal for a European Long Term Strategy on climate change and the modernization of the economy).

Kind regards,

Telmo Baltazar

Subject: Possible meeting with [REDACTED]

Dear Telmo

I am [REDACTED] at the BP office in Brussels and have been working closely with [REDACTED] at CEPS on some of their policy work with companies. We have a senior BP executive visiting Brussels at the end of the month and [REDACTED] recommended you as a person who would be well worth contacting for a possible meeting.

[REDACTED] will be visiting Brussels on November 28. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] had a number of very useful meetings with Commissioner Arias-Canete over the last few years (the last one being June this year) but we were wondering if you may have some availability on November 28 to share perspectives on the energy transition and some of the broader geo-political energy challenges facing Europe. Currently we have some availability from 12.15-14.00 and from 15.30 onwards that day.

If you are available and would like to meet with us please let me know and I can make the necessary arrangements. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.
