Dear [REDACTED]

We sincerely thank you for taking the time out of your very busy agenda to discuss our collaboration and the upcoming Colloquium.

As you requested in the meeting we sent a list of possible speakers to those responsible in this regard. Shortly we will also send our recommendations for participants and some input on the draft agenda you explained to us.

We took note that you mentioned that the [REDACTED] mentioned something in the press that could be deemed confusing but we are reviewing all our press cutting and cannot find this element, can you please provide us with some information regarding this because we would like to clear-up any misunderstandings.

Finally, we wanted to take this opportunity to request a short meeting for [REDACTED] and First Vice-President Frans Timmermans. We appreciate that this is a very busy time, however, if you could send us some propositions of openings in the Vice-President's agenda for a meeting at his earliest convenience we would be grateful.

Should we be able to assist you with anything else, do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank you and kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],
With my apologies I must ask you to reschedule this meeting.
[REDACTED] will have to attend an institutional meeting and will only be available from 16h15. Would this still be an option for you or shall we try to find another date?

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for sending us this kind proposal.

Can we kindly confirm the 16th April for the meeting with [REDACTED] and yourself at 3.30pm.

Looking forward to receiving your confirmation.

Kind regards,

On behalf of [REDACTED] I would like to propose you either the 15 or 16 April, at 12h00 or 15h30 on both days.

Would you be so kind as to let me know if any of these dates and times would be convenient for you?

Best regards,

Dear [REDACTED]

A very quick message as I am not in the office – I know [REDACTED] has got back to you with a detailed reply.

If you find it useful we could arrange to speak or meet in April, together with [REDACTED] in copy, can help identify a suitable moment.

Best wishes,
[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

I hope you are well and that things are not too busy for you.

We are writing to you as a follow-up to the meeting [REDACTED] had with First Vice-President Frans Timmermans. As you know some initial steps were discussed and we would like to know if you have an update on the progress of these measures.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should we be able to assist you with any of these necessary steps.

We were also encouraged by a letter addressed to [REDACTED] from the High Representative/Vice-President Federica Mogherini which explicitly states that steps are being taken at EU-level to effectively implement measures to combat anti-Semitism.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Thank you and kind regards,

Dear [REDACTED]

Just a clarification. This resolution was submitted to the Senate with the support of more than half of the Senate (53 original co-sponsors in total) . The Senate must still pass this resolution.

Sorry about this misunderstanding.

Best regards,

Dear [REDACTED]

Hope you are well.

The US Senate voted a resolution on February 25th calling upon enhanced collaboration with the EU and European countries on the fight against anti-Semitism.

I thought you might find it interesting. Point 2 calls upon the appointment of a special envoy on anti-Semitism.

Kind regards,
