Subject: Your application for access to documents – Ref No 2019-08

Dear Ms. Izuzquiza

We refer to your e-mail dated 07/03/2019 in which you make a request for access to documents, registered on 13/03/2019 under reference number 2019/08.

In accordance with article 7(8) of Regulation 1049/2001, a 15-working day extension of the initial deadline was submitted to you on 03/04/2019. Thus, the final deadline for replying to the initial request is 29 April 2019.

You requested access to documents since 26 April 2018 containing the following information:

- “- a list of all lobby meetings held by this EU body with Facebook or its intermediaries. The list should include: date, individuals attending and organisational affiliation, as well as the issues discussed;
- all minutes and other reports of these meetings;
- all correspondence, including attachments (i.e. any emails, correspondence or telephone call notes) between this EU body (including the Director and the Cabinet) and Facebook or any intermediaries representing its interests; and
- all documents prepared for the purpose of the meeting and/or exchanged during the course of the meeting.”

Firstly, we kindly inform you that the EDPB was established by the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) on 25 May 2018. Therefore, we cannot provide documents that were created before that date and are not in possession of the EDPB. This being said, we have identified 10 documents containing information that falls within the scope of your request.

To facilitate our assessment and your consultation of the files, the titles of the files have been adequately numbered. We will refer to the numbers of each single file in our assessment below.

You may reuse the documents requested free of charge for non-commercial and commercial purposes provided that the source is acknowledged and that you do not distort the original meaning or message of the document/documents. Please note that neither the EDPB, nor its Secretariat assume liability stemming from the reuse.

1. Full disclosure

Secretariat of the European Data Protection Board

rue Wiertz, 60
1047 Brussels

The following document can be fully disclosed: Document 6

2. Partial disclosure

Having examined the documents requested under the provisions of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001 regarding public access to documents, alongside the scope of your request, I have come to the conclusion that the following documents may be partially disclosed. Some parts of the documents have been redacted as the information either falls outside the scope of your request or its disclosure is prevented by the following exceptions to the right of access laid down in Article 4 of Regulation 1049/2001:

Documents falling partially outside the scope of the request:

- Documents 1, 2, 3, 4, 5.

Exceptions applicable under Article 4 Regulation 1049/2001:

1. Exception 4(1)(b) (“Privacy and integrity of the individual”). The following documents to which you request access contain personal data, in particular names and contact details of data subjects, as well as other personal information. Pursuant to Article 4(1)(b) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, access to a document has to be refused if its disclosure would undermine the protection of privacy and the integrity of the individual, in particular in accordance with EU legislation regarding the protection of personal data. The applicable legislation in this field is Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC. When access is requested to documents containing personal data, Regulation 2018/1725 becomes fully applicable¹. According to Article 10(1)(b) of this Regulation, personal data shall only be transferred to recipients if they establish the necessity of having the data transferred to them for a specific purpose in the public interest and the controller considers it proportionate. We consider that, with the information available, the necessity of disclosing the aforementioned personal data to you has not been established and/or that it cannot be assumed that such disclosure would not prejudice the legitimate rights of the persons concerned. Therefore, we are disclosing a version of the documents requested in which these personal data have been redacted. Please, note that the personal data redacted concern staff members and other private persons, whereas the full names of those holding publicly known positions have been kept.

In addition, all metadata containing direct or indirect identifiers that would allow for an identification of a specific data subject was removed for the entirety of documents assessed in accordance with the exception mentioned above.

¹ Judgment of the Court of Justice of the European Union of 29 June 2010 in Case C-28/08 P, Commission/The Bavarian Lager Co. Ltd., ECR 2010 I-06055. This case concerns the previous Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data.

This exception applies to the following documents:

- Documents 1, 2, 3, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10.

5. Exception 4(3), 1st paragraph. The disclosure of the redacted parts would seriously undermine the decision-making process of the EDPB as they relate to a matter where a decision has not been taken by the Board and contain discussions, views and/or opinions of the EDPB members, of members of its Secretariat or of third parties. The disclosure of said discussions, views and/or opinions would prevent the involved parties of contributing for internal discussions in an unrestrained and uncensored manner, thus seriously impairing the quality of the discussions and, ultimately, of the decision-making process of the EDPB.

Internal email addresses were also redacted to prevent their use by the public, since they are reserved for internal use only and its disclosure would create a disruption of the working arrangements / methods of the Board and/or its Secretariat, which would then seriously undermine the decision-making process of the EDPB.

This exception applies to the following documents:

- Documents 2, 3, 7, 8, 9, 10.

The exceptions laid down in Article 4(3) of Regulation 1049/2001 apply unless there is an overriding public interest in disclosure of the documents. We have not been able to identify such an interest.

In accordance with Article 7(2) of Regulation 1049/2001, you are entitled to make a confirmatory application requesting the European Data Protection Board to review this position.

Such a confirmatory application should be addressed within 15 working days upon receipt of this letter to the following email address: edpb@edpb.europa.eu. Please make reference to the case number of your request in the subject.

Yours faithfully,

Ventsislav Karadjov

Vice-Chair of the EDPB
