Dear Vice President Dombrovskis,

You very kindly met with [redacted] in the fringes of the IMF Washington meetings last October, which she greatly appreciated. She has asked me to enquire whether you might be participating in the Spring IMF meetings, and if so, whether diaries might permit a short meeting. As a reminder, [redacted], and now leads both the firm’s public policy and its corporate governance efforts. I attach a letter that [redacted] recently sent to the CEOs of a number of the largest companies in which we invest our clients monies on their behalf. The letter sets out our approach towards corporate governance. This seeks to deepen communication between shareholders and companies and to encourage company boards to articulate their strategic framework for long term value creation, their purpose and approach to managing environmental, social and governance matters.

[redacted] should be grateful were a meeting with you to be feasible.

Kind regards,

[redacted]
