

Dear [REDACTED],

Our suggested agenda is:

- Overview of SCB's strategy in Europe, including an update on our Brexit planning
- Sustainable finance
- Cross-border regulatory challenges, including the treatment of trade finance in the Capital Requirements Regulation and the implementation of the EU Benchmarks regulation-
- SCB's involvement in the Belt and Road Initiative
- Fintech, digitalisation and cyber

We are conscious there may not be enough time to cover all topics. Please let me know if you have any comments.

Also, [REDACTED] sends his apologies as he won't be able to join the meeting. We do hope we can find another time for a meeting in the near future.

Many thanks,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Indeed the meeting is foreseen to take place in your offices in London, however, the timing is still tbc. I will let you know asap.

Best,

Dear [REDACTED],

I hope you had a good weekend.

Can I please check with you that the meeting between the Vice-President and [REDACTED] on Oct 18th at 11.30hs will be at our offices in the City of London?

Many thanks,

Dear [REDACTED],

Not a problem at all, I completely understand. We were finalising last travel arrangements and unfortunately the Vice-President decided to take a later flight to Vienna, leaving even less time for meetings. So at this stage the schedule is completely full for his time in Vienna and he will not be able to meet [REDACTED].

However, allow me to inform you that we have a scheduled meeting with the [REDACTED] in London on 18th October. We could perhaps consider a joint meeting at that time? Would [REDACTED] be available on that date?

I apologise for the inconvenience but I hope we can find a suitable arrangement for all.

Best regards,

Dear [REDACTED]

Sorry to chase, but I was wondering whether you had a chance to consider the meeting request as per my previous e-mail? Our Chairman, [REDACTED], is very keen to meet the Vice-President, should his diary allow it.

Many thanks and kind regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email and meeting request. Regrettably I am not able to provide any feedback at this stage as Vice-President's travel plans are not yet fixed for that week. We are only able to respond to you later. Many thanks for your understanding and patience.

Kind regards

Dear [REDACTED],

Sorry to chase, but, as per my previous email, I was wondering whether Vice-President Dombrovskis had a chance to consider [REDACTED] invitation for a meeting on the margins of the EUROFI conference?

Kind regards

Dear [REDACTED]

We understand that Vice-President Dombrovskis will be speaking at the EUROFI conference in Vienna in early September. If his diary allows, we would very much welcome the opportunity for [REDACTED] our Group Chairman, to meet with him in the margins of the event.

We would be grateful if you could kindly indicate his availability for a meeting on Wednesday, 5th September.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,
