Information/allegations

Text Removed - Justification 4 performed an interview with a 18 year old man from Morocco on the 18th of February. The migrant had been apprehended on the 15th of February in Kelebia and during his interview he claimed that initially he had crossed the Serbian Croatian border. "After the subject crossed the border he was aprehended by the police of Croatie. They took the subject back to the Serbian border, beat him and send him back to Serbia. The subject walked for 1.5 hours to the refugee camp of Sid where he stayed for 7 days. From Sid the subject traveled to Belgrado again. There he slept in an abondened train for 18 days before going to Subotica. From Subotica the subject walked to the border of Hungary but was aprehended by the Serbian police. The police told the subject to walk back. The subject walked back to the trainstation of Subotica. There the subject climbed on a freighttrain. The subject didn't know where the train was going but he just wanted to leave Serbia. After the subject got on the train he hid inside. After the train drove for 15 min he was apprehended by the police of Hungary in the city of Kelebia. "
