Dear [redacted]

Yes 40 minutes will likely be enough. Therefore if ok with Kyriacos, it's fine with us.
Please keep us informed.
Kind regards,

Dear [redacted]

Many thanks for the proposals. I will check with Kyriacos if 29 January 16h15 is fine (he has the next meeting at 17h00) – but if 30 40 minutes is fine with you, we could schedule it for that day.

9 am unfortunately never works – fixed morning meetings, and 11h30 on 4 February Kyriacos already has another meeting.

Kind regards,

Dear [redacted]

Many thanks for the follow up. Unfortunately, we are travelling next week and therefore cannot make it at the suggested times.

However here are some further suggestions for your consideration:

- 29 January at 16.15
- 31 January at 09.00
- 4 February at 09.00
- 4 February at 11.30

Hope that one of these dates can fit into Kyriacos' agenda.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

I am coming back to your meeting request of December and can propose a meeting on 20 January in the afternoon as of 3pm, on 22 January at 11am or in the afternoon as of 3pm, or on 23 January as of 3pm. If this does not suit your agenda, we can always look into the follow week.

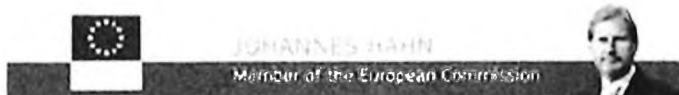

Please let me know which date/time you prefer and who will join the meeting.

Many thanks in advance.

Dear Kyriacos,

On behalf of [redacted] I would like to thank you for your response and your openness to get input from stakeholders.

In that spirit, we would be grateful if you could accept to meet us in the next weeks and give us the opportunity to introduce the energy and climate related challenges and opportunities ahead for the oil and gas upstream industry in the framework of the green deal and the Paris agreement.

We look forward to receiving your feedback and your suggested dates of meetings.

Please do send my warmest regards to David Mueller.

I wish you a nice Christmas break and all the best for 2020.

Kind regards
