Dear [Name],

Thank you for your email requesting a meeting with [Name] at ABN AMRO Bank on the 19th February to discuss Basel III, Sustainable Finance, Anti-Money Laundering and the Capital Markets Union. Would 2.30 pm be convenient for you?

I would be grateful if you could complete the attached security e-pass for all visitors. The meeting will be held in DG FISMA Rue Spa 2.

Many thanks.

Kind regards,

[Name]

European Commission
DG FISMA - Directorate-General for Financial Stability, Financial Services and Capital Markets Union

cid:image002.png@01D59E05.ABFEDF50

The views expressed in this e-mail are my own and may not, under any circumstances, be interpreted as stating an official position of the European Commission.
Dear Mr. Berrigan,

On 19 February 2020, our CEO – [REDACTED] – will visit Brussels. In that respect, I wanted to ask you if you would have time for a meeting with [REDACTED] between 14.00 and 16.00.

[REDACTED] noted the plans of the new European Commission with great interest. In particular as regards the topics of Basel III, Sustainable Finance, Anti-Money Laundering and the Capital Markets Union.

[REDACTED] would be very happy to discuss the above-mentioned topics – and other bank-related priorities – with you. He would especially be interested in knowing how we, as ABN AMRO Bank, can help the Commission now and in the near future (f.e. by sharing experiences and/or expertise).

Awaiting your response.

Thank you very much in advance.

Yours sincerely,

[REDACTED]
Dit bericht is verzonden door ABN AMRO Bank N.V., statutair gevestigd aan de Gustav Mahlerlaan 10 te (1082 PP) Amsterdam, ingeschreven in het Handelsregister Amsterdam onder nummer 34334259.

In order to protect ABN AMRO Bank and its customers, and in compliance with the legal and regulatory requirements, the content of both incoming and outgoing email communications, which could include proprietary and non-public personal data, may be read by authorised persons within ABN AMRO Bank NV other than the intended recipient(s).