Dear Eurostat,

Under the right of access to documents in the EU treaties, as developed in Regulation 1049/2001 and in the recent context of alleged scientific research parties using Facebook data for commercial use, I request from you the following:

A list of all receivers for the years 2016 and 2017 of Eurostat microdata that allegedly have received your data for "scientific purposes only" as you describe on your website:
<http://ec.europa.eu/eurostat/web/microdata>.

The list should include the following details:

- 1) Receiver (names of: legal entities, institutions and individuals receiving the data)
- 2) Data-Set shared (description of the microdata-set shared by you with the Receiver)
- 3) Purpose for which the data has been requested (declared scientific purpose)
- 4) Confirmation (or not) that Eurostat has received research results derived from the data
- 5) If Eurostat has confirmed deletion of the shared microdata after its use (specify if receivers self-audit or if Eurostat exerts its own auditing)

Yours faithfully,

[redacted]
