Subject: Speaking at the Web Summit

Dear Viviane,

I'd like to invite you to speak at Europe's largest tech event, the Dublin Web Summit later this year.

We are inviting the world's leading digital thinkers for a high level salon to tackle three cardinal issues: control, culture, and ethics, and I would like to invite you to join us and play a key role in the discussion.

This year's Summit will also bring approximately 350 of the world's leading founders, investors and CEOs to inventors, and designers together. Confirmed participants include David Marcus, president of PayPal; Matt Mullenweg, founder of WordPress; Niklas Zennström, founder of Skype; Kevin Rose, founder of Digg; Joe Lonsdale, founder of Palantir; Eugene Kaspersky of Kaspersky Labs; Esther Dyson; Padmasree Warrior, CTO of Cisco; Eric Wahlforss, founder of SoundCloud; Tony Faddell, founder of Nest Labs; Patrick Collison, founder of Stripe; Anthony Noto of Goldman Sachs; Robert Scoble; and Shervin Pishevar of Menlo Ventures.

Previous participants at Web Summit events included Reid Hastings, CEO of Netflix; David Karp, CEO of Tumblr; Jack Dorsey, founder of Twitter; Tim Armstrong, CEO of AOL; Youtube co-founders Chad Hurley and Jawed Karim; Monty Widenius, inventor of MySQL; former US Treasury Secretary Larry Summers; General Wesley Clark; Bono; the President of Ireland; and the Prime Minister of Ireland.

I wanted to keep it short for now, but am happy to provide more information to your office.

Best wishes,

[REDACTED]
