Subject: Invitation Computers Privacy and Data Protection 8th annual conference

Dear Kevin O'Connell

My name is [REDACTED], and I'm contacting you on behalf of the organising committee of the 8th edition of the conference on Computers, Privacy and Data Protection (CPDP) -- 'Data on the Move', to be held on 21-23 January 2015 in Brussels, Belgium

With more than 650 participants in previous editions, this event is consolidating as a solid forum where: key members of the European Parliament, European Commission, companies such as Google, Microsoft, and Deloitte, as well as Data Protection Authorities, academics, legal practitioners, representatives from the ICT sector and civil society get together to discuss topical issues related to Privacy and Data Protection

We are reaching out to you because the 2015 edition of CPDP "Data on the Move" will host several panels that might be of interest to you and Commissioner Věra Jourová, and we would very much like to see if we could involve you in some way. For your information I am attaching a preliminary version of the 2015 programme. Please, do not circulate further.

If you are interested in taking part, we would be glad to grant you full access to the Conference on the day when you may wish to speak. Speakers are expected to present a 12-14 minute argument, and to take part in the public debate within their panel.

Don't hesitate to contact me if you, or anyone from your team, would like to receive more information. Thank you in advance for taking the time to consider this invitation.

For more information about this event you can also visit our website: <http://www.cpdpconferences.org>

Yours sincerely,

[REDACTED]
