I am writing you referring to my colleague's email below regarding a meeting request with you and [redacted] of BusinessEurope.

[redacted] together with his colleagues [redacted], would like to have the opportunity to discuss with you the attached letter sent to Executive Vice-President Timmermans on 10 April 2020 on the deadlines for non-essential environment- and climate-related consultations and regulations due to the COVID-19 crisis, but also BusinessEurope's recently published proposals for a European Economic Recovery Plan (30 April 2020), in particular on the EU Green Deal.

Would you be available this week or the following for a virtual meeting?

Thank you very much in advance for the consideration you will give to this request. I remain at your disposal to find a suitable time.

Yours sincerely,

[redacted]

[REDACTED]

I hope you are doing well despite the current situation. You may have seen the attached letter that our Director General sent to Executive Vice President Timmermans last week regarding the deadlines of running consultations and implementation deadlines of existing environment- and climate-related legislation.

[REDACTED] and I would like to invite you for a call next week to explain the intention of the letter to you in further detail.

Would you perhaps be available on Friday 24 April at 14:00 for this?

Thank you and kind regards,

[REDACTED]
