Subject: RE: BioNTech/Pfizer Request for Meeting

Dear [REDACTED]

Thanks for your message. Following the adoption of the vaccines strategy by the European Commission last week, it was agreed that negotiations with BioNTech/Pfizer will be taken forward by a joint team composed of representatives of the Commission, Germany and Sweden. There will be no further parallel negotiations with any of the Member States for any part of the EU.

The Head of the Commission's team is Sandra Gallina, in copy of the present mail.

In order to make quick progress, I suggest that you get in touch with [REDACTED] and set-up a meeting with the negotiation team. As discussed in our last call, such meeting would be most productive if it could take place on the basis of a draft term sheet.

I hope that this is helpful.

Kind regards

Céline

Subject: BioNTech/Pfizer Request for Meeting

Dear Céline,

Following on from your recent individual discussions with BioNTech and Pfizer, we wanted to ask you if it would be possible to set-up a meeting with both of us and your colleagues on Thursday of this week. At that meeting, we would like to discuss our joint proposal for a supply agreement, which we will send you by latest tomorrow (Tuesday) night.

We continue to be extremely excited about our vaccine approach and are highly committed to making it widely available.

[REDACTED]

You mentioned when we spoke that the Commission would like to reach agreement quickly. We are highly motivated to achieve this goal.

Please could you let us know at your convenience if it would be possible to meet on Thursday.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]
