Dear [REDACTED]

As promised, please find attached the revised contract reflecting our discussions and propositions.

[REDACTED]

To help us bridge the remaining gap efficiently, we have pulled together a Issues List with several categories, and in each case tried to explain why we see still an issue and what we propose. Hopefully that is a helpful tool for your team to review the issues, clarify our position more than it can be done in the contract itself, and our approach to certain changes.

- [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]
- 7 significant [REDACTED], including taking on [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]

Perhaps you can read through that list and give me a call at your convenience (even this weekend, not a problem for me) to see how we can proceed in the most effective way to resolve them.

Separately, we have last week received [REDACTED] although of course I don't have visibility on that.

In any case, I look forward to our scientific/project update on Monday.

Have a good week end,

[REDACTED]
