Dear [REDACTED],

The paper we sent is public and we would be delighted to be referenced in an Impact Assessment report of the European Commission.

For ease of reference, please find here the link

(<https://betterfinance.eu/publication/better-finance-position-paper-on-the-intra-eu-investment-facilitation-initiative/>) to our website and the reference:

“BETTER FINANCE, Position Paper on the Intra-EU Investment Facilitation Initiative (December 2020), available at: <https://betterfinance.eu/publication/better-finance-position-paper-on-the-intra-eu-investment-facilitation-initiative/>. “

I remain at your disposal for any further questions or comments.

Yours respectfully,

Dear [Redacted]

Following your exchange with [Redacted], I would like to ask whether BETTER FINANCE would agree with possible references to your position paper and the name of your organisation in the impact assessment report.

We are not certain whether the position paper you sent us is public. If not, we could refer to it in general terms, for instance contribution by an organisation advocating and defending the interests of European citizens as financial services users.

Many thanks in advance for your clarification and I would also like to wish you and your colleagues a happy and successful new year!

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you very much for sending BETTER FINANCE's input for our initiative on the intra-EU investment facilitation.

We are finalising our draft impact assessment, and are still in a position to take your submission on board.

We will come back to you in case we need to clarify some points.

I wish you and your colleagues a very happy new year.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]
