Dear [REDACTED],

You have kindly invited Mr Thierry Breton, European Commissioner for Internal Market, to a virtual meeting with [REDACTED].

Your request has received his full attention; however, Mr Breton has asked me to reply to you personally, to let you know that unfortunately his schedule does not allow him to respond favourably.

However, Mr. Valère Moutarlier, Head of Cabinet to Commissioner Breton as well as Ms Filomena Chirico, member of the Cabinet, would be please to meet him.

May I propose you the following date: 29 January 2021 from 10.00 to 10.45. In case this date would not be convenient, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Subject: ITI CEO Meeting request with Commissioner Breton – Q1 2021

Cara Filomena, [REDACTED]

I hope you are well, had a restful Christmas break and a good start into the new year.

I am writing to you to inquire the availability of Commissioner Breton for a virtual meeting with ITI [REDACTED] in the coming weeks.

As you know, ITI is the global association of the technology industry, representing currently 75 leading companies covering the entire spectrum of technology, including internet companies, hardware and networking equipment manufacturers, software developers, cloud service providers and other tech-enabled multinational organizations.

We are highly engaged on a broad range of EU policy files relevant to the technology industry including the Data Governance Act, platform legislation and the DSA-DMA, and the upcoming artificial intelligence proposals. Given Commissioner's Breton leadership and involvement with these issues, we would appreciate a chance for the Commissioner and our CEO to briefly exchange views.

Thank you in advance for considering our request and we'll be glad to be flexible with regards to timing to accommodate the Commissioner's agenda.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]
