

From: [redacted]@itic.org>
Sent: Donnerstag, 7. Januar 2021 12:33
To: HAGER Michael (CAB-DOMBROVSKIS); CAB DOMBROVSKIS CONTACT; [redacted] (CAB-DOMBROVSKIS); [redacted] (CAB-DOMBROVSKIS)
Cc: [redacted]
Subject: Request for a meeting with ITI's [redacted] and EVP Dombrovskis – Q1 2021

Dear Michael,

I hope you are well and had a restful Christmas break and a good start into the new year.

I am writing to you to inquire for your availability and that of EVP Dombrovskis for a virtual meeting with our [redacted] in the coming weeks.

ITI is the global association of the technology industry, representing currently 75 leading companies covering the entire spectrum of technology, including internet companies, hardware and networking equipment manufacturers, software developers, cloud service providers and other tech-enabled multinational organizations.

We are actively advocating for positive transatlantic cooperation and for an open and balanced approach to trade policy globally, and are very supportive of the proposals for a Trade and technology Council. Given EVP 's role in shaping European and global trade, we would appreciate a chance to exchange views and discuss policy approaches.

Thank you in advance for considering our request and we'll be glad to be flexible with regards to timing to accommodate your availabilities.

Kind regards,

[redacted]

[redacted] | ITI · The Information Technology Industry Council | 0032
[redacted] Rue de la Loi 227 (Schuman) | EU Transparency Register: 061601915428-87

Promoting Innovation Worldwide - ITI is Tech's Global Voice. We advocate for policies that advance innovation, open markets, and enable the transformational opportunities our companies are creating, providing perspective and insight on policy around the world. Our members represent the full spectrum of technology: from internet companies, to hardware and network equipment manufacturers, to software developers.

