Dear [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] would like to thank you for your e-mail. He has asked me to reply on his behalf.
Unfortunately, due to enormous calendar constraints since [REDACTED] is also in charge of Health in the Cabinet of the President, I cannot schedule any meetings for him in the short term.
However, may I advise you to contact the Cabinet of Commissioner McGuinness in charge of taxonomy ?
I hope we can count on your understanding.
Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

We would like to highlight that for reasons of public transparency, Commissioners and their Cabinets only meet organisations or self-employed individuals that are registered in the EU's Transparency Register (see here: <http://ec.europa.eu/transparencyregister>). I would invite you to register if you have not yet done so, and send us your registration number if you wish to request a meeting.

Dear [REDACTED]

Our industry, supporting fully the EU objective of climate neutrality by 2050 and the enabling measures, is very concerned about the current discussion of the DA on Taxonomy due for publication on 21st April and the way out we hear the Commission is considering for gas. In this context, we would like to talk with you quite urgently, in fact in the following days, like end of days or early mornings if it suits you better.

Looking forward to your response,

With my very best regards,
