Dear Mr. Stengg,

I hope this note finds you well.

I am writing to you from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce in Washington, D.C., where I lead our international artificial intelligence and digital economy policy.

My colleagues and I are planning a delegation of member companies to Brussels from March 2-4. While weâ€™re there, we would be delighted to meet with you and your team to discuss the new Commissionâ€™s ambitious digital agenda and shared transatlantic opportunities.

Are you availableâ€™preferably on Tuesday, March 3, or Wednesday, March 4â€™for such a meeting? Our schedule is open on Tuesday and we are flexible up until 3:30 pm on Wednesday.

Several of the companies we expect to join us include Abbott, Amway, Caterpillar, Chubb, Experian, IBM, JPMorgan Chase, Lilly, MetLife, Pfizer, PhRMA, UPS, and Walmart. A list of the specific executives joining the trip is attached here.

We are taking this delegation to Brussels to meet with Commission officials and MEPs, with a particular focus on the transatlantic digital economy and a positive agenda for the U.S.-EU relationship. This trip is an important opportunity for major U.S. investors in Europe to engage directly with EU officials on a range of issues that matter for business and policymakers.

We look forward to hearing from you and are happy to answer any questions that you or your colleagues may have.

Kind Regards,
