

CVs for [REDACTED] Roundtable on Cloud with Commissioner Breton

1&1 / Ionos (Gaia-X Day 1 member)

1&1 by Ionos (Germany, around 2000 employees) is a web hosting and cloud partner targeting small and medium-sized businesses, focusing on IaaS and offer a portfolio of solutions for the digital space. They are one of the largest hosting companies in Europe, with more than 8 million customer contracts and over 12 million domains, hosted in own regional data centers in the US and Europe. The company belongs to the United Internet AG group and is the only virtual network operator in Germany to have long-term, secure access to the Telefónica network via an MBA MVNO contract (mobile bitstream access mobile virtual network operator).

3Ds Outscale (Gaia-X Founding member)

3DS OUTSCALE (France, around 170 employees) is a provider of secure cloud computing infrastructure services (IaaS). The company was founded in 2010 and is a subsidiary of Dassault Systèmes. In 2019, the 3DS OUTSCALE IaaS infrastructure is the first to receive the SecNumCloud qualification (French cloud security certification). Its key customer target is the public sector.

Amadeus IT Group (Gaia-X Founding member)

Amadeus (Spain, around 17 000 employees) is a technology company dedicated to the world's travel industry. The company has a team across the world in more than 190 countries. They deliver technology solutions at all stages of the travel experience – from inspiration to shopping, booking, on-trip and post-trip.

Aruba (Gaia-X Day 1 Member)

Aruba S.p.A., founded in 1994 (today around 6000 employees), is a leading Italian company for data centers, cloud, web hosting, email, certified email (PEC) and domain registration services. The company is also active in key European markets including France, the UK and Germany, the Czech Republic and Slovakia, with an established presence in Poland and Hungary. Aruba has a total of 5.4 million customers. The IT solutions include public and private cloud services, hosting services, housing and colocation services, dedicated servers, digital signature services, digital preservation, e-billing, certified email, SSL certificates, smart-cards. Aruba is a private company and 100% owned by the Cecconi family.

Atos (Gaia-X Founding member)

Atos (France) is a global leader in digital transformation with 120,000 employees in 73 countries and annual revenue of € 13 billion. European number one in Cloud, Cybersecurity and High-Performance Computing, the Group provides end-to-end Orchestrated Hybrid Cloud, Big Data, Business Applications and Digital Workplace solutions through its Digital Transformation Factory, as well as transactional services through Worldline, the European leader in the payment industry. The Group operates under the brands Atos, Atos Syntel, Unify and Worldline. Atos is listed on the CAC40 Paris stock index.

Cap Gemini (Gaia-X Day 1 member)

Capgemini (France) is a global leader in consulting, digital transformation, technology and engineering services, and acts as system integrator. It is a multicultural company of 270,000 team members in almost 50 countries. With Altran, the Group reported 2019 combined revenues of €17billion.

Cloudferro

CloudFerro (Poland, around 60 employees) is a privately held, European SME company. Its business is based on open source software and local engineering competencies thus maintaining high level of technological autonomy. CloudFerro provides sector-specific cloud computing solutions for the European space sector, climate research and science. The company operates one of the Copernicus DIAS platforms (Creodias) as well as providing cloud computing services for the Wekeo DIAS platform (of EUMETSAT, ECMWF and Mercator) and Climate Data Store. CloudFerro also operates the cloud-based processing of Earth Observation data for Germany under the Copernicus program.

DE-CIX (Gaia-X Founding member)

DE-CIX (Germany, around 120 employees) provides premium network interconnection services and operates several carrier and data center-neutral Internet Exchanges in Europe, the Middle East, North America, and Asia. DE-CIX is a spin-off from eco e.V., which is the Internet Trade Association that helped to shape the legal and political framework for the liberalization of the telecommunications market in Germany.

Ericsson (Gaia-X Day 1 member)

Ericsson (Sweden), with more than 95 000 employees and a presence on 180 markets in the world, is one of the globally leading providers of Information and Communication Technology (ICT), with about 40% of the world's mobile traffic carried through our networks. The company Ericsson is going through a shift from virtualized network functions to cloud native applications, and has developed leading commercial offerings in this area.

German Edge Cloud (Gaia-X Founding member)

German Edge Cloud (Germany, ca. 40 employees) is the digital arm of the Friedhelm Loh Group, a family owned leading German industry player „German Edge Cloud“ is a start-up in growth phase, which focuses on industrial edge cloud computing.

Gigas (Gaia-X Day 1 member)

Gigas (Spain, ca. 80 employees) is a leading locally based cloud computing company in Spanish-speaking markets globally. Its cloud platform pairs advanced technology with specific SME customer services. It has a customer base of nearly 3,600 businesses and is active in seven countries worldwide. Gigas offers two products—the Cloud Virtual Private Server (VPS) and the Cloud Datacenter.

Indra (Gaia-X Day 1 member)

Indra Sistemas, S.A. is a Spanish information technology and defense systems company. Indra is listed on the Bolsa de Madrid and is a constituent of the IBEX 35 index. In the 2019 financial year, Indra achieved revenue of €3.204 billion, with 49,000 employees, a local presence in 46 countries and business operations in over 140 countries.

Irideos (Gaia-X Day 1 member)

Irideos (Italy) is a IaaS cloud service provider. It is a new ICT hub created by merging the companies Infracom, McLink and KpnQwest (already integrated into Irideos before 2018), and Enter and Clouditalia. Today, the company has around 700 employees and in 2018 achieved a turnover of 190 million euros in core connectivity services, data centers, cloud and managed services, as well as 60 million euros in resale to the wholesale market.

Leaseweb

Ocom Group (400 employees around the globe) consists of the companies Leaseweb, EvoSwitch, FiberRing and DataXenter, all active in the Internet Service, data center and hosting sectors. In The Netherlands, Ocom is market leader in bare metal servers and cloud. It is a leading force in Europe in 'green hosting' and can build on top connectivity services as it is located on the Amsterdam Internet Exchange Point. Ocom can deliver large bandwidth over its network, as it transports 5 Tbps over the internet. Leaseweb operates a network with data centers around the globe, incorporating 43 points of presence and 29 Internet Exchanges around the globe.

Magic Cloud Oy

Magic cloud (Finnish company, 20 employees) is an independent European Cloud Service provider, growing fast in this market area. The company has 300 + customers and a turnover of 2.1 million Euros. All its data centers are located in Finland and the company guarantees to securely store and protect data in accordance with European regulations. They have the ISO27001 Security Certification, and their data centers are benefiting from solar energy.

NabiaX

Nabiax (Spain, ca. 40 employees) is a running Colocation and Hosting services in highest quality Data Centers in Spain and Latin America. The company was born after Asterion Industrial Partners - an independent investment firm - bought the 11 Data Centers from Telefónica. Nabiax has a presence in 7 countries: Spain, Argentina, Brazil, Chile, the United States, Mexico and Peru. All the infrastructures are connected to the Telefónica's fiber network.

Nokia

Nokia (Finland, around 98 000 employees) offers a comprehensive portfolio of network equipment, software, services and licensing opportunities across the globe. Driven by the award-winning Nokia Bell Labs, the company is leader in the development and deployment of 5G networks. Nokia's communications service provider counts more than 6.4 billion subscriptions with its radio networks, and their enterprise customers have deployed over 1,300 industrial networks worldwide. The company did 23.3bn euros net sales 2019, and invest 129bn euros in R&D investment over the past two decades. It counts 3,000+ essential 5G patents.

Orange (Gaia-X Founding member)

Orange (France) is one of the world's leading telecommunications operators with sales of 42 billion euros in 2019 and 143,000 employees worldwide at 30 September 2020, including 83,000 employees in France. The Group has a total customer base of 257 million customers worldwide at 30 September 2020, including 212 million mobile customers and 21million fixed broadband customers. The Group is present in 26 countries. Orange is also a leading provider of global IT and telecommunication services to multinational companies, under the brand Orange Business Services.

OVHcloud (Gaia-X Founding member)

OVH is the largest European infrastructure cloud provider.

Retelit (Gaia-X Day 1 Member)

Retelit (less than 100 employees) is a major Italian provider of data and infrastructure services to the telecommunications market. The company offers integrated digital solutions, from infrastructure to data management, from the network to applications. It does so by combining different assets owned by Retelit: a fiber optic network in Italy and around the world and a network of distributed Data Centers, as well as the skills from the acquisition of PA group in 2020, specialized in innovation and the digital sector. Its customers include both private and public sectors. Retelit has been listed on the Milan Stock Exchange since 2000.

SAP (Gaia-X Founding member)

SAP SE (Germany) is the world market leader in enterprise software and software-related services. The company is headquartered in Walldorf, Germany, with locations in more than 190 countries. SAP applications and services enable 350,000 customers globally to operate profitably, adapt continuously, and grow sustainably.

Schneider Electric

Schneider Electric (France) is a European multinational company providing energy and automation digital solutions for efficiency and sustainability. It addresses homes, buildings, data centers, infrastructure and industries, by combining energy technologies, real-time automation, software and services. The company has operations in over 100 countries and employs 135,000+ people. Schneider Electric is a Fortune Global 500 company, publicly traded on the Euronext Exchange, and is a component of the Euro Stoxx 50 stock market index. In FY2019, the company posted revenues of €27.2 billion.

Siemens (Gaia-X Founding Member)

Siemens AG (Germany) focuses on intelligent infrastructure for buildings and decentralized energy systems, on automation and digitalization in the process and manufacturing industries, and on smart mobility solutions for rail and road transport. In fiscal year 2020, the Siemens Group generated revenue of €57.1 billion and net income of €4.2 billion. The company has around 293,000 employees worldwide.

TIM (Gaia-X Day 1 member)

TIM S.p.A., also operating under the name Telecom Italia, is an Italian telecommunications company, which provides telephony services, mobile services, and DSL data services. It is the largest Italian telecommunications services provider in revenues and subscribers. The company intends to extend its leadership in Cloud and Edge Computing services through different partnerships.

Telefonica

Telefónica, S.A. (Spain) is one of the largest telephone operators and mobile network providers in the world. It provides fixed and mobile telephony, broadband and subscription television, operating in Europe and the Americas.

T-Systems (Deutsche Telekom, Gaia-X Founding Member)

T-Systems (Germany) is a subsidiary of Deutsche Telekom and one of the world's leading providers of inter-manufacturer digital service, with sites in more than 20 countries, 37,900 employees and external revenue of 6.8 billion euros (2019). The company relies on the group's network infrastructures and European Data Centers, to deliver a wide range of digital services: secure hosting, information systems outsourcing and cloud data (private, public, hybrid), multi-cloud management, networks, work environments and cyber security. T-Systems solutions are available instantly in operated mode (PaaS) mainly, but also in IaaS mode. It operates the largest SAP Cloud in the world with over 4 million users. In fiscal year 2017, T-Systems achieved sales of nearly 6.9 billion euros.