Dear [Name redacted]

I come back to you regarding the meeting foreseen on 23/10 at 12:00. Unfortunately, Sabine will have to attend another meeting at 12:00.
Would that be possible on your side, to come either at 12:30 or at 10:30?

Sorry for the inconvenience and kind regards,

Dear

I come back to you regarding the meeting foreseen on 14/10 at 11:30. Sabine has now to go on mission that day and the meeting cannot take place.

I suggest to postpone the meeting to 15/10 at 15:00 or 15:30 if this is fine for you.

Thanks for your reply.

Dear

Please find below an email I've sent you in July for a meeting between Ms Weyand and FoodDrinkEurope.
Could you please kindly let me know if one of these dates suits Ms Weyand?
Many thanks in advance.

Dear [Redacted]

I take the liberty of contacting you following the reply letter from Ms Weyand dated 17th July. She kindly suggested that we get in touch to find a date for a meeting between herself and FoodDrinkEurope. So please find below some possibilities on our side:

10 September
11 September PM
12 September
30 September
2 October
3 October
Could you please kindly let me know if one of these dates suits Ms Weyand?

Many thanks in advance and wishing you a lovely Summer!
