Importance: High

Dear members of the Health Security Committee,

Please find enclosed the update of the common and mutually recognised list of rapid antigen tests, as agreed by the Health Security Committee today by written procedure.

Some minor corrections were addressed as submitted by DE, ES, FI, FR, LV, NL today, which did not change the content of the document.

For information, the updated document will be published on the Commission's website tomorrow noon. Thank you once again for all the valuable information that you submitted to us and that made this update possible.

Kind regards,
HSC Secretariat
