Dear [redacted],

Thank you very much for sending us the reply from Spain in response to the proposal by France. Could you please send us the attachment as it wasn't included in your previous email?

Kind regards,

Dear HSC Secretariat,

Please, find attached the document with our comments.

As a generic comment, we do not have information of any validation study carried out in Spain for any none of three tests mentioned. Any of the three tests is proposed for use in Spain. However, given the decentralized Health System in our country we cannot exclude the use of these tests in some health facilities, although if this is the case, the use of these tests would be probably very limited.

Best regards

Dear colleagues,

A final request from France came in regarding the HSC document on RAT.

Could all countries please have a careful look at the document attached and let us know by tomorrow morning 9:30 if they agree with the addition of these three specific rapid antigen tests to the common list (and potentially the list of which results will be mutually recognised)?

In particular, feedback from FR, IT, BE, ES and SE is required.

Kind regards,
HSC Secretariat
