Dear [REDACTED],

Kindly thank you for your mail and patience. We would be pleased to propose you a slot on 2 July at 15h00. On our side, it will be Mr Antoine Colombani and Ms Stefanie Hiesinger who will take part in the meeting. Due to heavy agenda constraints, regrettably, Mr Samsom cannot join the meeting.

If this is acceptable and suitable on your side, could you please kindly confirm the names and the e-mail addresses of the participants on your side? We would be pleased to set-up the video-call.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

Apologies for the long delay, we were planning to get back to you to find a slot.

[REDACTED] will be in touch very soon.

Best regards,

Antoine

Dear Mr Samsom,

Dear Mr. Colombani, Dear Antoine,

I am writing to follow-up from the below e-mail and meeting request. We are fully conscious these are very busy times for you and the cabinet, but we would appreciate a brief virtual meeting in the coming days given the very dense EU agenda for our industry and the upcoming "Fit for 55" package.

The following dates would work well from our perspective:

- 21st June morning
- 22nd June afternoon
- 23rd June at 14.00 or 15.00
- 24th June at 16.00
- 28th June anytime from 11.00
- 29th June at 16.00
- 30th June anytime except lunchtime
- 1st July anytime
- 2nd July afternoon
- 5th July anytime
- 6th July anytime

I attach again for reference the recent letter we sent to the Executive Vice-President, together with our CEOs. I thank you in advance for your response and we look forward to hearing from you.

Best Regards,

[REDACTED]
