Dear [REDACTED],

With sincere apologies, but the slot on 5 July is regrettably, no longer possible. Helena has been scheduled to travel abroad and this requires to adapt the meeting.

Would it be suitable on your side a slot on 8 July at 15:00?

I am really sorry for rescheduling the meeting again and thank you very much for your kind understanding.

With best regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

We were looking forward to this meeting but totally understand. And 5 July works from our end so no problem at all. I will confirm the list of participants from our end in a couple of weeks.

Good luck with the publication of the Nature restoration law which we supported via a statement released last week.

Best,

Dear [REDACTED]

The agenda of Helena and other Cabinet Members is totally overtaken by the Nature Restoration Law and regrettably, the meeting today is no longer possible. We sincerely apologise for the inconveniences created.

As an alternative, we would be happy to propose you a slot on 5 July at 16:00.

Would it be that also suitable on your side?

Once again, apologies for the last minute rescheduling and thank you kindly in advance for your understanding.

With kind regards,

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your e-mail. If the agenda allows it, Ms Braun will be joined by Ms [REDACTED] from the Cabinet of Commissioner Sinkevicius, Mr [REDACTED] from the Cabinet of Commissioner Breton and [REDACTED] from the Cabinet of Commissioner Kyriakides.

Could you please kindly confirm the participants on your side and their e-mail addresses so we can send you the Webex video-link? For now, we have sent the link only to you and [REDACTED]. Is it correct?

Thank you kindly in advance.

Best regards,

Dear Ms [REDACTED]

I hope you are well.

Could you please let me know who are the other participants confirmed from the other cabinets for our virtual meeting with Ms Braun tomorrow morning? It will help us to prepare accordingly.

Many thanks in advance.

Subject: Unilever update and meeting request

Dear [REDACTED],

I hope that you are doing well. It's been a while!

I am sure you are very busy but would you be available for a meeting in the coming weeks? We are keen on understanding the direction of travel on packaging but also on the Chemical Strategy for Sustainability. I don't know if you are aware but Unilever has joined NGOs to protect the animal testing ban for cosmetic products and we would be very interested in discussing this with you alongside any other topics you'd like our view on.

I'd also like to introduce you to my colleague Stephanie who joined the team last year and is notably working on finding policy hooks to help us to replace fossil-fuel derived carbon in our homecare product formulations by 2030.

Finally, I also wanted to share that I am trying to organise a meeting between our CEO and EVP Timmermans (perhaps in Davos) and that we are organising a movie screening on 27 April where we really hope to see you (more information below). An official invitation will follow.

Thank you very much.

Best,

Subject: High level meeting with Unilever - Davos + 27 April (Brussels)?

Dear [REDACTED],

I hope that you are well.

I was wondering if EVP Timmermans was planning a trip to Davos this year and whether he would agree to meet our CEO Alan Jope to follow up on their meetings from two years ago? It would be very interesting to take stock of the European Green Deal half way through its execution and how we can collaborate moving forward.

I also take this opportunity to inform you that our Homecare [REDACTED] will be in Brussels on 27 April for a film screening we are organising at Bozar. The invitation (below) will be sent in the coming days. I assume is a bit short notice to organise a 121 meeting with EVP Timmermans on that day (or the day after) but should I reach out to [REDACTED] to check his availability?

Many thanks in advance,

Best regards,

I am pleased to invite you again to the exclusive screening of “Going Circular”, a new documentary that challenges us to reform our deepest ideas about what it really means to thrive as a species on Planet Earth.

Directed by Nigel Walk and Richard Dale, produced by Off the Fence, the maker of the Oscar-winning documentary “My Octopus Teacher”, for Curiosity Stream, ZDF/ARTE and ZDF Enterprises, “Going Circular” tracks four of the world’s foremost innovators: 102-year-old inventor Dr. James Lovelock, biomimicry biologist Janine Benyus, designer Arthur Huang, and financier John Fullerton. Their diverse backgrounds and forward-thinking has had a significant impact on how mankind thinks about its future.

The film will be preceded by a cocktail reception.

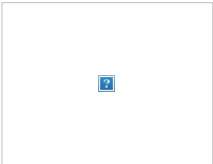

WHERE: Palais des Beaux-Arts de Bruxelles (BOZAR): Rue Ravenstein 23, 1000 Bruxelles Belgium

WHEN: 27th of April @ 19:00
