Subject: FW: Association of German Banks – Request for joining a Banken on screen panel on the Basel IV proposal (November 2021)

Dear [REDACTED],

On behalf of Sean I would like to thank you for your e-mail and the request for joining a Banken on screen panel on the Basel IV proposal in November.

Unfortunately Sean's agenda is already very busy in November and he will not be able to accept the invitation.

However, he nominated Mr Martin Merlin, Director FISMA DG, to replace him at the panel. Mr Merlin has expressed his interest in attending the screen panel.

Should this proposal be suitable for you, please liaise directly with MR Merlin's office (in cc) for further follow up.

We wish you a lot of success with your event and trust in your understanding.

Best regards,

Subject: Association of German Banks – Request for joining a Banken on screen panel on the Basel IV proposal (November 2021)

Dear Director-General, dear Sean,

I hope that you and your team had a good summer break.

The BdB intends to organize a 60 minute virtual panel discussion as part of its successful virtual Banks on screen series taking stock of the upcoming Commission's legislative proposal on Basel IV. Striking the right balance between bank's resilience and financing of the economy will be the key challenge.

We would be delighted, if you, Sean, would agree to join the panel and present the Basel proposal from the European Commission's perspective.

Meanwhile we have approached EP Vice-President Othmar Karas (EPP, AT) to join the panel. Deutsche Bank would also be among the panellists – either with [REDACTED], or [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

The event would take place in November 2021 – thus shortly after the much expected publication of the legislative proposal. Regarding the exact date of the event, we would be open to suggestions, ideally in the second week of November 2021.

This public event will be livestreamed on our website. The discussion will be in English. We guess that we will have around 150 international participants from the EU institutions, member states and financial sector.

We look forward to hearing from you – hopefully with a positive reply.

Best regards,
