Dear [redacted]

Many thanks for your swift reply. On the suggested dates, I could propose 29/11 – 16:00-16:30 or 30/11 – 15:00-15:30. Would you please let me know if any of these work for you?

Also, I would like to ask you to subscribe InnoGlobal to our Transparency Register, as we are not allowed to organise meetings with organisations which are not part of the Register. Here you have all the details: Transparency Register \(europa.eu\) Please send me the final registration number when this is done.

Looking forward to your answer and don't hesitate to write me back in case of additional questions.

Kind regards,

Dear [redacted]

Many thanks for your invitation. Unfortunately I will not be in Brussels that week. However I will be there on the 29th and 30th of November. I would be grateful to meet with Alina during those dates – if possible.

In addition, InnoGlobal are jointly hosting an Industry 5.0 roundtable event on the afternoon of 29th November in Brussels and we would be delighted if Alina might be able to attend. I will send the formal invitation early next week. Either way, I would be delighted to meet with Alina during these two days (particularly morning of 29th November or morning of 30th November).

Many thanks

Hi Alina,

I hope you're keeping well. My name is [REDACTED] I'm founder and CEO of InnoGlobal (innoglobal.com). It was recommended by President Von der Leyen's Cabinet that I connect in with you.

I've just returned from Washington where I was discussing digital skills with Congress, the World Bank and a few industry sector groups. Off the back of some really good meetings with Congress (particularly members of Congressman Meeks' foreign affairs team), I would be grateful for a meeting to discuss our thoughts on addressing digital skills challenges at scale across multiple geographies.

I've no doubt that this is fully aligned with your mission also. Would you have an hour to discuss these topics over the next few weeks? I'm pretty flexible up to end of October. I then fly to Capetown to support a Digital Skills project that we are leading across SSA. Perhaps you might suggest a few times that you are available over the coming weeks and I would be delighted to chat. This can be done over Teams – if it works for you?

Thanks again [REDACTED],
