Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email and apologies for getting back to you only now.

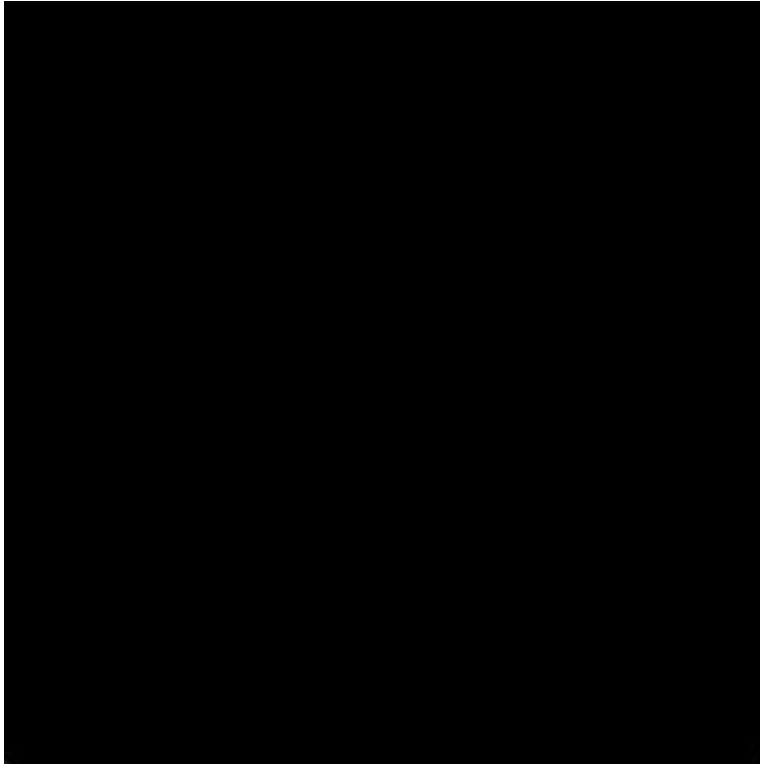

I tried to call you a few minutes ago and I left a voice message to thank you for the proposed dates. Unfortunately, as I mentioned there, our Chairman, [REDACTED] won't be available on those two dates ([REDACTED] will be in Davos) and we were wondering whether there is any availability for a meeting the week after or the first week of February.

Thank you in advance for your flexibility.

Looking forward to hearing from you, I wish you a nice afternoon.

Best,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],
Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you so much for your prompt reply and for taking into consideration our request.

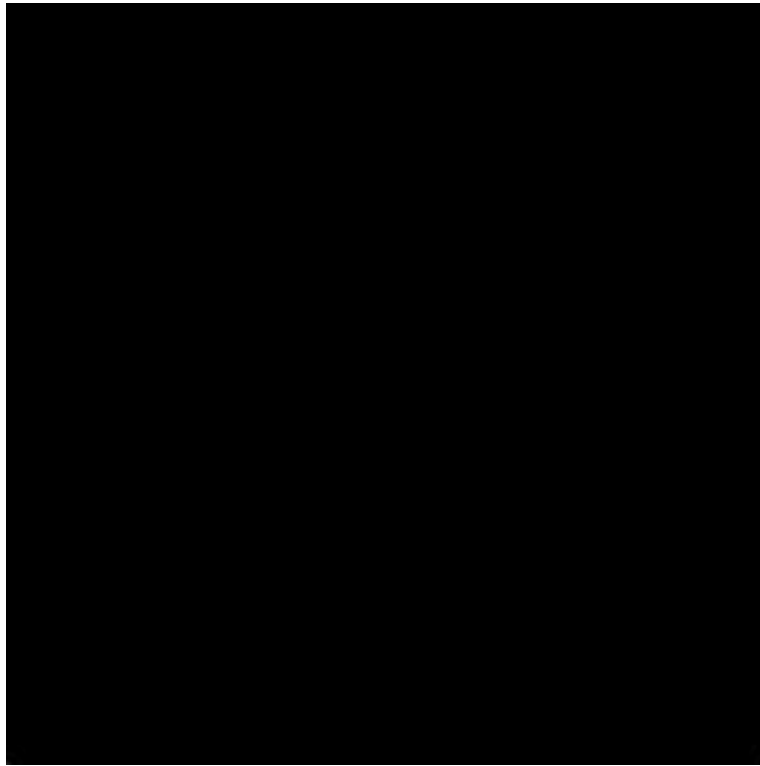

As mentioned in our letter of congratulation to Commissioner Simson, we would be pleased to set up a meeting with [REDACTED] and AmCham EU leadership in the coming weeks to discuss your cabinet's priorities and possible future engagement – including a possible meeting on either Monday 27 April 2020 or Tuesday 28 April 2020 with Ms Simson and our Executive Council.

We are well aware of the busy period and we are willing to accommodate your agenda.

Should you need further information, do not hesitate to contact me. I will gladly answer all the questions you might have.

Looking forward to hearing from you, I wish you a nice day.

Best Regards,
[REDACTED]

Subject: AmCham EU - Congratulatory letter Ms Simson

Dear Commissioner Simson,

On behalf of the American Chamber of Commerce to the European Union (AmCham EU), we would like to congratulate you on your confirmation as Commissioner for Energy. Together with all the other Members of the Commission, you have a unique role in shaping policies that will make a real difference in the lives of European citizens.

In attachment, please find a congratulatory letter together with our vision document, the Agenda for Action, that identifies four key action areas that we believe should drive the political agenda over the next five years. A hard copy of these documents has also been sent to your office and should arrive soon.

We look forward to engaging constructively with your team and the College over the coming years. As you will see in the letter, we would like to request a meeting with you and our Executive Council, which brings together twenty European CEOs of US companies with operational responsibilities for European or Global markets, on either Monday 27 April 2020 or Tuesday 28 April 2020. We would be happy to further discuss and provide more details on this meeting with you or your team in the coming weeks.

Looking forward to hearing from you, I wish you a happy and relaxing holiday season.

Best Regards,
