Estimada [REDACTED]:

Soy [REDACTED], miembro de la directiva de YEPP (Youth of the European People's Party), y secretaria de Internacional de Nuevas Generaciones del Partido Popular, [REDACTED] (in CC) me ha facilitado tu contacto

Un colega de una organización griega, el secretario de Internacional de ONNED (las juventudes de Nea Demokratia), [REDACTED], alumno del Centre for Shipping, Trade & Finance of Cass Business School, City University London, está ayudando al profesor [REDACTED] con la organización de la octava edición del "City of London Biennial Meeting" que se celebrará el 17 y 18 de noviembre de 2016 en la International Maritime Organisation (IMO) Londres.

El profesor [REDACTED], [REDACTED] del evento, quisiera invitar al Comisario Cañete, dada su gran experiencia en el ámbito energético, como el principal ponente del evento, cuyos temas centrales serán la economía mundial y la energía. En caso de que estuviese interesado en asistir y su agenda se lo permitiese, el profesor [REDACTED] le emitiría una invitación oficial, estando igualmente disponible para cualquier consulta al respecto.

A continuación incluyo información más detallada sobre el evento:

The City of London Biennial Meetings were established in 1999 by its founding Chairman [REDACTED], with the objective of bringing together, under the same roof, world business leaders, policy-makers, and academics, to discuss and debate issues of challenge, competition, innovation, and their consequences all within a global context. It was quoted by the Governor of the Bank of England as the most important meeting of the City of London (more info <http://www.cass.city.ac.uk/research-and-faculty/centres/stf/news-and-events/city-of-london-biennial>)

[REDACTED] founded the International Centre for Shipping, Trade and Finance in 1983 (renamed the Costas Grammenos Centre for Shipping, Trade and Finance in April 2007). He has been head of the Centre since its inception and responsible for its design; and, until 1997, was Founding Director of the world class M.Sc. in Shipping, Trade and Finance, introduced in 1984; and the MSc. in Transport, Trade and Finance, introduced in September 1997 (from 2008-2012, known as MSc Supply Chain, Trade & Finance); while the MSc in Energy, Trade and Finance was introduced in 2003. More than 3000 students, from 130 countries, have graduated over this period, and many of them are holding leading positions in international banking, shipping and trading, manufacturing sectors. In addition, the Centre undertakes research in Shipping Finance, Maritime Risk Management, Logistics and Commodity Trade and Finance. It also has created a platform for international dialogue between senior business executives, government and academia. He was 1998 Seatrade Personality of the Year; in 2008 he was awarded the prize of Distinguished Personality for his outstanding contribution to the shipping industry by the Association of Banking and Financial Executives of Hellenic Shipping; and in 2009 was awarded the 'Achievement in Education' at the Lloyd's List Shipping Awards. He was made OBE (Hon) in 1994, for his work in international shipping and finance and appointed CBE (Hon) in 2008 for "services to teaching and research". In 2013 he was awarded 'Commander of the Order of the Phoenix' by the Hellenic Republic for his world leading teaching and research in the maritime industry. He is Member of the Board of Directors of the Alexander S. Onassis Public Benefit Foundation (1995), Member of the American Bureau of Shipping (1996), FRSA (1996), Founder and Chairman of the City of London Biennial Meetings (1999, 2001, 2003, 2005, 2008, 2010), a Founding Trustee of the Institute of Marine Engineers Memorial Fund (2000-), Freeman of the City of London (2000), Liveryman of the Worshipful Company of Shipwrights (2002), Fellow of Chartered Institute of Bankers (2004).
