Dear Eamonn,

Unfortunately I already have a full-day meeting that day; I copy my colleagues perhaps they are available.

The Stop Litter Now! Summit seems distant now. But it was a great success and your input really was appreciated. You may or may not know, that Pack2Go Europe, the European association of food & beverage service and convenience packaging manufacturers, was instrumental in catalysing and supporting the creation of the Clean Europe Network. They realise that their products are among those prominently littered. Helping launch the Network was one way the industry felt it could help in promoting better litter prevention. Pack2Go Europe is still an associate member of the Network.

On 9 June the CEOs of Pack2Go Europe member companies will be meeting in Brussels. They will be launching a strategic work programme for the industry focusing on finding a place for service packaging in the circular economy (lots to do!) and of course that will also involve considering the related topic of litter prevention. With that in mind we were hoping that you would be ready to present the same presentation that you kindly made to the Stop Litter Now! Summit in April. We envisage your slot at about 12 noon hrs for 20-30 minutes. Derek Robertson, chairman of the Clean Europe Network, will be presenting the Network's programme after you.

It would be marvellous if you could help – again! – and I know that the business people are particularly keen to hear direct from the Commission.

With many thanks,

Sincerely,

Eamonn
