

Dear Mr. Commissioner,

On behalf of Huawei, I would like to write to you to clarify a statement you made at the conference 'China invests in Europe: patterns, impacts and policy issues' on 7 June at Bruegel in Brussels, Belgium.

Firstly, we fully agree with your position on how "we cannot accept, in Europe or elsewhere, that national security concerns are used as a false pretence to justify the protection of vested economic interests". This fully reflects, in our opinion, the spirit of open market and free trade. [REDACTED]

In United Kingdom, [REDACTED]

Huawei [REDACTED] in Germany [REDACTED]

Furthermore, our investment in Europe [REDACTED]

As a summary, we believe, as a responsible corporate citizen, [REDACTED]

Taking note of the above, we should hope that you could understand [REDACTED] and should be grateful to set up a meeting with you to offer more information about Huawei to you, including the clarification of some facts.

We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours sincerely

Leo Sun (孙翱)
