Good afternoon,

Given the topics mentioned in your last email, we have assessed that Christian Burgsmüller should ideally be meeting with your delegation. A meeting can take place on Wednesday 22 November between 11:00-11:30 am. I assume that you meant to write a.m. and not p.m. as Christian will most probably be sleeping at 11:00 pm. Please fill in the enclosed visitors' list without tampering with its format and use the European date format, i.e. DD/MM/YYYY. Thanks.

Kind regards,

European Commission
Cabinet of Commissioner Cecilia MÅLMSTRÖM: Trade

European Commission

Dear [Art 4.1(b)],

Again, thank you very much for your positive reply. The topics we would like to discuss are US trade policy and a possible UK/EU27 trade partnership.

With regard to the timing of the meeting, I would kindly like to explore with you any possibility to meet after 11 pm. If the agenda of Mr Nyman would not allow him to meet later that day, then of course we would be more than happy to meet Mr Nyman at 10pm.
Thank you very much in advance.

Dear [Art 4.1(b)],

It would be possible for Mr Nyman to meet Mr Shirzad and [Art 4.1(b)] on Wednesday 22 November.

I would propose to hold the meeting at 10:00.

Would you be able to specify the subjects that you would like to be covered in the meeting?

Thanking in advance,

European Commission

Cabinet of Commissioner Cecilia Malmström

Dear Mr. Nyman,

I trust this finds you well.

I am contacting you to see if it would be possible to arrange a meeting with Faryar Shirzad, Chief of Staff EMEA and [Art 4.1(b)], [Art 4.1(b)] Goldman Sachs.

Faryar Shirzad and [Art 4.1(b)] will travel to Brussels on Tuesday 21 November and Wednesday 22 November and they would be grateful to meet you.

Thank you in advance for your consideration and I look forward to hearing from you on whether a meeting might be possible on one of these days.

Kind regards,
