Dear Lord Malloch-Brown,
Dear Mark,

Thank you very much for your e-mail and all the information about the 'Best for Britain' campaign.

I fondly remember our meeting when you were UNDP Administrator and I was Foreign Minister.

Having consulted my calendar I am afraid that at this extremely busy stage in the negotiations, it will be difficult for me to commit to a meeting for the foreseeable future.

Thank you for your understanding.

With my best wishes,

Michel Barnier

Dear Mr Barnier,

Kofi Annan told me that he had kindly raised with you the Best for Britain Campaign which I chair. We are trying to build a strong public majority in favour of staying in the EU which will in time influence the outcome of the upcoming UK parliamentary votes. We have attracted quite a lot of media attention as well as considerable fundraising success in recent weeks. I attach a link to a recent Reuters interview with our CEO, Eloise Todd. <https://uk.reuters.com/article/uk-britain-eu-campaigner/chance-of-halting-brex-it-now-close-to-5050-says-leading-campaigner-idUKKCN1G70ZM>

Kofi said you had indicated a willingness to meet. We would be delighted to call on you in Brussels at your convenience.

You may recall we met when you were Foreign Minister and I was UNDP Administrator.

Yours sincerely
Mark Malloch-Brown
