Dear

Thank you for meeting us yesterday. It's been a very useful update on the status of the project.

You asked about the Globalisation Fund in the context of a possible assistance to Puglia in view of the closure of an Arcelor Mittal plant there.

I quickly checked on the fund's website and it indeed seems that it would be for Italy to apply (not a region/individual company). But it is for affected employees or companies that wish to benefit from the fund's support to start the process. So perhaps if TAP wants to bring this as an idea to Puglia/local authorities you should suggest them contacting the Globalisation Fund contact point in Italy (<http://ec.europa.eu/social/ajax/countries.jsp?langId=en&intPageId=412>) so that things could get started? Or perhaps your Italian colleagues would get in touch with the Fund contact point to sound out if this seems a possible option for this specific Arcelor Mittal plant closure?

More info on the fund can be accessed at <http://ec.europa.eu/social/main.jsp?catId=326>

I hope this helps

It seems, however, that there is a very limited time (12 weeks?) between the redundancies and the application for fund money...

Thanks very much Milosz – you're fast!!

Indeed, I will discuss this internally with colleagues. It may be good opportunity.

Best regards,
