

SUBJECT: INFORMAL EXPERT MEETING ON BUSINESS AND HUMAN RIGHTS IN BRUSSELS, 29/01/2018

Dear colleague,

An informal expert meeting hosted by the EEAS jointly with the Commission on business and human rights will take place in the margins of the forthcoming meeting of the Working Party on Human rights (COHOM):

Monday, 29 January 2018

European Commission "L/130" building, Rue de la Loi 130, Brussels (Room: LOI.130.A)

The meeting will offer an opportunity for MS experts and colleagues from the EU institutions to discuss strategic approaches to business and human rights, including exchange of experiences in regard to National Action Plans as well as to brainstorm on ways forward in order to be as effective as possible in multilateral fora.

COHOM delegates are also welcome to join the meeting. A more detailed agenda will circulate closer to the meeting.

The meeting will begin at 10.00 and end at 17.00. The working language will be EN and FR, no interpretation will be provided.
