Hi [Article 4(1)(b)],

[out of scope]

I just wanted to follow-up regarding your keynote: if you could give me a title than I can add it.

We have practically finalized the whole programme. Will send you the latest version for soon.

Thanks!

greetings

OK. I had planned to take the Friday off which is where the issue of timing comes in. But I need to check a bit more. Give me a week or so. Thanks,

Dear [Article 4(1)(b)],

We are organizing our next Annual Conference on 31 Jan in London and would very much like to have you as our keynote speaker.

This year the topic is: The EU and the future of international investment law and arbitration, see attached draft programme.

You are of course free to select the topic of the keynote (around 45 min) as long as it fits the general theme of the conference.

We plan to have a few commentators discussing the keynote and also let the audience come in too.

So, it should be a perfect fit for you.

We know that you do speak at other events of NGOs and other organizations and so we would very much appreciate it if you would engage in a dialogue also with us.

Just to confirm: EFILA is an international, independent NGO registered in the EU Transparency Register 877607714842-74.

The event will be public, aiming at arbitration practitioners, academics, policy makers ect. and of course 1 or 2 EC colleagues will get a free pass.

So, I very much hope you will accept our invitation.

We will have a speakers' dinner the evening before.

Looking forward hearing from you.

Happy to discuss over the phone.

Greetings
