Confidential

Dear Mr Colombani,

We had been in touch last year. I am supporting the organisation of the upcoming visit of our CEO, Mr Tim Cook, to Europe end of October. Mr Cook will speak at the 40th International Conference of Data Protection and Privacy Commissioners on the 24th of October. Mr Cook has expressed again interest to meet First Vice President Timmermans on that occasion.

I am writing to enquire whether such a meeting on that day would be possible?

I look forward to your reply,

With kind regards
