

CV H.E. Monsignor Alain Paul LEBEAUPIN

Titular archbishop of Vico Equense

Apostolic Nuncio to the EU

Msgr. Lebeaupin, born on 2 March 1945 in Paris, was ordained priest on 28 June 1975 and served subsequently in Nice. He holds a doctorate in Public Law and degrees in Theology and Canon Law. In 1998 he was appointed Titular Archbishop of Vico Equense (Italy).

June 2012-today: Apostolic Nuncio to the European Union.

2005-2012: Nuncio to Kenya; Permanent Observer to United Nations Environment Programme and UN-HABITAT (United Nations Human Settlements Programme), Nairobi.

1998-2005: Nuncio to Ecuador.

1996-1998: Chargé d'affaires of the Apostolic Nunciature to the European Community.

1989-1998: Head of Holy See Delegation to the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe (CSCE – later OSCE).

1989-1996: Holy See Secretariat of State (Section of Relations with States), Rome

1985 – 1989: Apostolic Delegation to Mozambique

1982-1985: Apostolic Nunciature to the Dominican Republic

1979-1982: Holy See Permanent Observer Mission to the United Nations, New York

1979: entered Holy See's Diplomatic service

Languages (fluently): French, Italian, English and Spanish.