Dear Members of the High Level Group on Fake News

I wish to thank you for your commitment to this Group and for your collaboration, constructive work and patience on Monday.

I enclose here the full email list of all email addresses, as agreed in the meeting, and to which you had given your approval when signing the attendance list, and as per the information you provided to the AGM system.

I would like to request that you all respect the confidentiality of this group, and each other, also in using these email addresses only and solely for the purposes of this group – unless you otherwise have specifically agreed with the person(s) in question.

Best regards
