Dear [REDACTED]

Thanks for your kind reply earlier this week.

I am coming back to you as Ecoembes is planning to come to Brussels again next month.

This time [REDACTED] will be joined by [REDACTED], and they would very much appreciate the chance for a short meeting with [REDACTED] at her convenience. We have not yet set a date, so let us know if you have a date(s) in November that will suit [REDACTED] schedule.

Best regards,

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your mail and request on behalf of [REDACTED] to meet with [REDACTED] Member from the Cabinet of the First Vice-President of the European Commission, Mr Timmermans to exchange views on the Commission's work on circular economy, particularly as regards the upcoming strategy for plastics and the role of EPR schemes in this strategy.

Regrettably, [REDACTED] is not in a position to meet [REDACTED] on 25 October as requested due to the short notice of the request and already taken commitments on that day in question.

We thank you in advance for your understanding.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

I am writing to you on behalf of [REDACTED] at Ecoembes, a non-for-profit organisation operating under the Extended Producer Responsibility principle, coordinating the recycling of paper, cardboard and plastics waste in Spain.

[REDACTED] will be in Brussels on 25 October for meetings and we would very much appreciate an opportunity to briefly meet with you on this occasion.

We would be interested in exchanging views with you on the Commission's work on circular economy, particularly as regards the upcoming strategy for plastics and the role of EPR schemes in this strategy.

As you may know, Ecoembes is an EPR scheme that ensures Spanish citizens are able to deposit and recycle their plastics waste. We are for this reason following closely the forthcoming Commission work on Plastics, and would be very interested in discussing some best practices in this field.

We realise it is short notice, so would like to underline that a brief meeting of 20-30 minutes would be sufficient.

Should you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards,

[Redacted]
